

Mrs. Frederick A. Abercrombie-Miller Announces Engagement Of Her Daughter, Edith, to Walter R. Tuckerman, of Washington

Mrs. F. A. de Peyster Will Act As Hostess Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Frederick A. Abercrombie-Miller announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Edith Abercrombie-Miller, to Walter Rupert Tuckerman, of Washington.

Mrs. Abercrombie-Miller, accompanied by her daughter, left for Morristown, N. Y., today to spend Thanksgiving with her married daughter, Mrs. Frederick Ashton de Peyster.

Mrs. W. R. Balsinger and Miss Gayle Balsinger, of Pittsburgh, who spent the early autumn in Washington, occupying apartments at the Portland, have gone to Philadelphia for Thanksgiving week.

Miss Balsinger and Miss Elizabeth Williams, of Philadelphia, who recently visited Washington as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Woodville Miller, will attend the Thanksgiving hop at West Point tonight.

They will return to Philadelphia for the Army-Navy game Saturday. Next week Mrs. Balsinger and her daughter will go to New York for ten days, returning to Pittsburgh in time to open their house there for the Christmas holidays. They will visit Washington again later in the winter.

Mrs. Hinchley To Entertain At Tea.

The Minister from Norway and Mme. Bryn will be the guests in compliment to whom Mrs. Robert Hinchley will entertain at tea tomorrow.

Walter R. Tuckerman was host at a large dinner at the Chevy Chase Club last evening.

Mrs. William Haywood will give a Christmas ball for her daughter, Miss Doris Haywood, on Tuesday, December 27, at her home, in 27th street.

Lord Percy, of the British embassy, has taken the residence of Mrs. Wood, widow of Captain Wood, U. S. N., at 1236 New Hampshire avenue, for the winter.

The first secretary of the Japanese embassy, Masanaga Hanahara, who spent the summer in Japan and a short time in China has called for this country, and is expected to arrive about the middle of December.

The newly-appointed attaché of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, Mr. von Hedry, has arrived in Washington.

Arrangements Made For Davis-Moore Wedding.

At the marriage of Miss Winifred Davis and Lieut. Richard C. Moore, U. S. A., which will take place December 7, the wedding party will include Miss Dorothy Langfitt, daughter of Lieut. Col. Langfitt, U. S. A., as maid of honor.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Maitland Marshall, daughter of Gen. William L. Marshall, U. S. A., and Miss Mary Landis, daughter of former Representative Landis, of Indiana, and there will be two flower girls, nieces of the bride, Miss Irene Davis and Miss Evelyn Teel, of Bridgeport, Conn.

Lieut. Julian L. Schley, U. S. A., will be best man, and the ushers will be Lieut. Max C. Taylor, U. S. A., Lieut. D. I. Sultan, U. S. A., and Lieut. Robert Alexander, U. S. A.

The Rev. Charles Wood, of the Church of the Covenant, will officiate at the ceremony, which will take place at 4:30 o'clock at the Highlands, where the bride and her mother have made their home for the last few years since their return from abroad. Only a small company will attend the ceremony, but additional guests have been asked for the reception, which will follow at 5 o'clock.

Military Attache Returns To Germany.

The Military Attache of the German Embassy and Mrs. Heywarth von Bittenfeld have gone to New York, from where the latter will sail tomorrow for Berlin, to remain until February.

Sir Robert and Lady Hatfield, brother-in-law and sister of the Attorney General, have taken the former home of Gen. Charles L. Pittsburg, at 225 Sheridan Circle, for the winter. They will return to Washington to take possession of the house about December 15. They spent the fall at the Virginia Hot Springs.

The Starmont Auxiliary will hold its annual tea and bazaar in the cabinet room, of the New Willard on Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10, from 12 to 10 o'clock.

The third of the Junior Bachelors' Assemblies of this season will be held on Thursday evening, December 1, at Mrs. Dyer's on R street.

Mrs. Dyer's Monday evening cotillions have begun.

Miss Fogg Hostess At Luncheon.

Miss Fogg of Tennessee, was hostess at a luncheon yesterday, in her apartment at St. Neleigh Court, in honor of Miss May Hammond and Miss Eliza Morgan McMullin, of California, who made their debut at a tea at the home of their aunt, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Saturday afternoon.

A centerpiece of pink Killarney roses formed the centerpiece for the table.

Mrs. Hitt, wife of Dr. David Marshall Hitt, of Philadelphia, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Louise Farrow, to Robert M. Barr, of Philadelphia, formerly of Washington.

LOCAL MENTION

Civil Service. For shorthand, typewriting, advanced bookkeeping and civil service preparation go to the old and reliable school, The Drillery, 1109 N. Y. ave. n22-24

25c. Try Our Famous Stews! 25c Phila. Oyster & Chop House, 513 11th nw.

CLOSED ALL DAY THANKSGIVING

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.
1300 G St.
PIANOS—MUSIC.

Mrs. Hutchins Hostess To Daughter-in-Law

Mrs. Charles T. Hutchins, wife of Rear Admiral Hutchins, U. S. N., will be hostess at a small tea this afternoon at 5 o'clock in compliment to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles T. Hutchins, jr., wife of Lieutenant Hutchins, U. S. N., and a bride of last summer.

Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Robert Hinchley and Mrs. Granville K. Fortescue will preside in the tea room for Mrs. Hutchins.

Gen. Harry G. Sharpe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Sharpe will leave Washington today for New York, to spend Thanksgiving. Upon their return, they will stop over in Philadelphia for the Army and Navy game Saturday.

Mrs. Hodges, wife of Colonel H. F. Hodges, U. S. A., of the Panama Canal Commission, has arrived in Washington, and has opened her residence at 177 Massachusetts avenue, for the winter.

Miss Frances Hodges will be among the debutantes of next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Walcott Are Visiting in New York.

The Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and Mrs. Walcott with their son, Stuart Walcott, have gone to New York. Charles D. Walcott, jr., who is a freshman in Yale Scientific, will join them in New York for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Walcott will visit relatives and friends in central New York before returning home.

Mrs. Grace Dyer Knight, of the Lenox, who has been very ill in Providence Hospital, has been removed to the Takoma Park Sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Upshur Moorhead, the latter formerly Miss Lillian Chew, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, J. Upshur Moorhead, jr., Sunday.

The baby is a great-grandson on his mother's side of Mrs. T. J. Coffey, a member of Washington's most exclusive resident circles, and on his father's side of Rear Admiral John H. Upshur, U. S. N.

Miss Katherine Riggs Poole, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sprigg Poole, has returned to Washington from Baltimore, where she spent the week-end with friends.

Miss Boardman To Hold Reception.

Miss Mabel Boardman will hold a large reception Tuesday evening, December 7, for the Red Cross Society, after the annual meeting. This is usually one of the most brilliant functions of the season, and is usually attended by President Taft.

Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff will give a large dinner for young people Tuesday, December 13, in honor of Miss Louise Cromwell.

Mrs. Arthur D. Addison entertained a small company of young people informally at luncheon yesterday.

The newly appointed military attaché of the Japanese embassy, Col. K. Inouye, who succeeds Colonel Tanaka, arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Lieut. Commander S. Kuroki, who will spend a few weeks in Washington, en route to England.

Colonel Tanaka will remain in Washington until December 1, before returning to Japan, where he has been assigned to duty in the office of the general staff of the Imperial Japanese army.

Washington society will be interested in the marriage of Miss Eva Smith, daughter of Representative Sylvester C. Smith, of California, and Mrs. Smith, to Esmer S. Larson, of the United States Geological Survey at Washington, which took place yesterday in Bakersfield, Cal. Representative Smith gave his daughter in marriage, and among the guests at the wedding was Director George Otis Smith, of the Geological Survey.

Mr. Larson will bring his bride to Washington to live.

Former Representative and Mrs. H. B. Cassel, of Marietta, Pa., have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss M. Effie Cassel, and William H. Holloway, of Washington. The wedding will take place on Friday, December 2, at Marietta.

Miss Mary E. Galbraith to Wed Lieut. Davis This Evening.

Miss Mary E. Galbraith, daughter of Major Jacob G. Galbraith, U. S. A., and Mrs. Galbraith, will be married to Lieut. Bowers Davis, U. S. A., this evening at 9 o'clock in the parlors of the Portner. The ceremony, which will be attended by a party of relatives and intimate friends, will be performed by the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, pastor of St. John's Church.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, Major Galbraith, will be attended by Miss Edith Baird, as maid of honor.

Shippin Cotter West, of Philadelphia, Pa., will be best man for Lieutenant Davis.

Charles Levee, of Georgetown University, a cousin of the bride, will play the wedding music.

An informal reception will follow the ceremony, and later in the evening Lieut. Davis and his bride will leave Washington for a wedding trip. After December 15, they will be at home at Madison Barracks, N. Y., where Lieutenant Davis is stationed.

Dr. and Mrs. Durand W. Lawson will be at home, 1217 M street, Friday, November 25, from 4 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Rose McFarland, of Eighteenth street, left Washington several days ago, to spend Thanksgiving in Denver, Col., with her mother, Mrs. Mary Picard.

Miss Stauffer Returns to South.

Miss Stauffer, who has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John McHenry, has returned to her home in New Orleans, La.

Miss Mildred Bacon, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bacon, entertained a small company of her contemporary buds at luncheon yesterday, asking her guests to the Thanksgiving dinner at her home, 177 Massachusetts avenue, where she is spending the week with her.

Tomorrow Miss Sands and her hostess will go to Annapolis for the Thanksgiving hop tomorrow night at the Naval Academy.

The Commissioner of Education and Mrs. Elmer Ellsworth Brown have taken apartments at the Hotel Buckingham, McPherson square, for the winter.

Representative James R. Mann of Illinois and Mrs. Mann arrived in Washington yesterday and have opened their apartment in the Highlands for the season.

Miss Alice Boyd, daughter of Dr. John C. Boyd, U. S. N., and Mrs. Boyd, will entertain at a dinner on December 3, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Collins, who will make her debut on Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Elizabeth Bryan will entertain a party at luncheon on Monday, November 28, at her home on Eighteenth street.

Informal Hop At the Navy Yard.

The first informal hop of the season will be held at the Navy Yard this evening.

On Friday, December 2, the opening hop will be given at the Washington Yacht Club, and on Friday, December 3, the first hop of the season will be held in the new large ball room at Fort Myer, which will be used for the first time.

Mrs. Russell B. Harrison left yesterday morning for Baltimore to join her daughter, Miss Martha Harrison, who has been spending the last few days there. They will return to Washington this evening.

Mrs. Frances Noyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Noyes, will go to Philadelphia on Saturday to attend the Army and Navy football game.

Miss Marie Reed, of New York, and Miss Editha of Michigan, who have been the house guests of Miss Ruth Parker, left Washington yesterday for their homes.

Miss Parker will leave Washington tomorrow morning for York, Pa., where she will attend the debutante luncheon of Miss Turden Smith, which will be given at the Country Club and will be followed by a reception and dance.

Miss Warner Wedded At Her Country Home

A beautiful home wedding was that of Miss Mary Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brahm H. Warner, and Levi Cooke, which took place at noon at her country home at Kensington, Md. The Rev. Henry Rumer, pastor of the Warner Memorial Church, at Kensington, performed the wedding ceremony, which was attended by only the members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

The bride, who was escorted to the improvised altar of tall palms and white chrysanthemums adorned the drawing rooms, and the dining room was decorated in smilax and yellow chrysanthemums. An orchestra played the wedding music.

The bride, who was escorted to the improvised altar of tall palms and white blossoms, and given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome gown of soft white satin, veiled in white chiffon cloth, embroidered in pearls and trimmed with duchesse and rose point lace. Her tulle veil was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a black velvet bag trimmed in black plumes, and carry a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

William L. Browning, of Grafton, W. Va., will be the best man for Mr. Cooke, and the ushers will be Dr. Henry Cook Macatee, Mortimer Carr, and G. Hodges Carr, brothers of a bridegroom, and Hyattsville, and Theodore H. Schoepf, of Pittsburgh, Pa., brother of the bride.

Immediate after the wedding ceremony Mr. Carr and his bride will leave Washington for New York for a brief wedding trip. Upon their return to Washington they will be at home at 141 Twenty-first street.

Mr. Carr is the son of Mrs. Carr and the late Judge Arthur Carr, of Hyattsville, Md.

Dance Given To Maurice Eisenman.

Maurice Eisenman was host last evening at an enjoyable dance given at Dyer's in celebration of his twenty-first birthday.

At a late hour a buffet supper was served. Dave Baer, president of the Octagon Club, of which Mr. Eisenman is a member, presented him with a handsome diamond ring. The host was also the recipient of a beautiful scarf pin, the gift of the young ladies. The presentation speech was made by Miss Belle Scheffman. Among those present were Miss Gladys Mayer, Miss Celeste Goodman, Miss Emily Hillman, Miss Rose Frank, of Baltimore; Miss Florie Kikes, of Baltimore; Miss Ernestine Rich, Miss Leona Stern, Miss Rhoda Mantner, Miss Helene Hoffa, Miss Belle Scheffman, Miss Ethel Meyers, of Baltimore; Miss Hortense Brylawski, Miss Natalie Mayer, Miss Beatrice Lansburgh, Miss Irene Einstein, Miss Lorraine Hermon, Miss Annette Goldsmith, Miss Rena Fleischman, Miss Maud Lichtenstein, Arthur Luchs, Lester Newman, Herbert Rich, Lawrence Gassenheimer, Alfred Stern, Milton King, Arthur Neuman, Edward Hahn, Melville Fischer, Stanley Fischer, Maurice Simon, Bernard Baer, Dave Stern, Lester Marx, Alfred Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Eisenman, and Clarence Eisenman.

Miss Florine Sikes Visiting Miss Brylawski.

Miss Florine Sikes, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Hortense Brylawski, of Calvert street.

Miss Ethel Meyers, of Baltimore, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Gladys Mayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Damman, who were recently married in Savannah are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Damman, of the Natchez.

Miss Lorraine Herman will leave the city tomorrow for New York, where she will be the guest of Mrs. S. Kink.

Miss Alice Pulaski, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Damman.

MEMORIAL FUND MEETING MONDAY

Cox Committee to Decide How Far to Act With Chamber of Commerce.

W. V. Cox, chairman of the committee appointed to raise in Washington one-tenth of the $2,500,000 for the proposed George Washington Memorial Convention Hall, has called a meeting of his committee for next Monday morning at 11 o'clock to consider the action taken by the convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce last Monday recommending that both committees urge every trade and civic organization in the city to concentrate efforts at once upon securing subscriptions to the building fund.

Army and Navy Orders; Movements of Vessels

ARMY.

Second Lieutenant WILLIAM F. PEARSON, 23d Infantry from treatment at the Walter Reed General Hospital, District of Columbia. First Lieutenant GEORGE F. BRADY, 13th Infantry, from further treatment at the Walter Reed General Hospital, District of Columbia, to his home preparatory to retirement from active service. First Lieutenant WILMONT E. BROWN, Medical Reserve Corps, from duty at the General Hospital, Fort Bayard, New Mexico, and will proceed to his home.

Ensign C. L. WRIGHT, resignation as an ensign accepted, to take effect December 1, 1910. Midshipman T. J. KELEHER, when discharged treatment Naval Hospital, Las Animas, Col., to Dubuque. Passed Assistant Surgeon R. G. HEINER, detached Naval Hospital, Norfolk, Va., to Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. Chief Machinist F. W. COBB, to Tallahassee.

NAVY.

Lieutenant C. R. P. RODGERS, to Tallahassee.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS.

Arrived—Tennessee and Montana at Hampton Roads, Drayton at New York, and Vulcan at Cherbourg. Sailed—Cyclops, from Norfolk for Bradford.

McCallum Silk Hosiery

Made of pure silk by skilled workers. Rich, brilliant, and durable. Sold at moderate prices. Wear it instead of lisle. Costs but little more and looks far better.

Any good dealer in this city will gladly show you McCallum Silk Hosiery or will get it for you on request.

Our hosiery is never sold without this guarantee envelope.

If you have difficulty in getting it, the names of local dealers may be had by writing to

McCALLUM HOSIERY CO. Northampton, Mass.

Largest Producers of Silk Hosiery in the World

LANSBURGH & BRO

420-426 7th St. 417-425 8th St.

ON ACCOUNT OF

THANKSGIVING

STORE WILL BE

CLOSED ALL DAY TOMORROW

SEE THURSDAY PAPERS FOR FRIDAY'S

BIG BARGAINS

HAVENNER'S

CREAM OF CRACKERS

Baked Daily in this City

Ask Your Grocer

HAVENNER BAKING CO.

Established 1815

THE NEW EBBITT CAFE

Makes Its Debut at Luncheon TOMORROW

As you find it on the opening day, so you will find it every day in the year—superior in every respect—featuring those things which count for most with everybody:

- Pleasant surroundings.
- Efficient service.
- Menu of highest grade.
- Charges that are uniformly reasonable.
- With a welcome that will make you feel at home and attention that will make you want to come again.
- The mid-day Luncheon for Business Men at 50c—and After-the-theater parties will be given special attention.
- Music will be in attendance during Luncheon and throughout the evening.

Entrance from Fourteenth Street From the House, Through the Lobby

Special Thanksgiving Dinner

Tomorrow from 5:30 to 8:30 in the main Dining-Room of the House, we shall serve a typical old-fashioned Thanksgiving Dinner. One Dollar per plate. Tables will be reserved for parties of any number upon request at the office.

—One Dollar Per Plate

G. F. SCHUTT, Proprietor

R. G. BURKE, Manager